

Real-time Tax Reporting & Penalties!

Governments and tax offices are stepping up the use of information technology to provide much more real-time reporting and tax penalties. It's a major trend that is likely to accelerate. This video explores three examples: Single Touch Payroll, imposition of Director Penalty Notices for GST and the Common Reporting System.

Check out the video article for more information.